NARRATIVE:

Over the last month Burlington Police have been investigating several burglaries that have occurred within the city limits. Some arrests have been made (prior press releases) however Detectives are still continuing to work numerous leads related to other burglaries. Last night Detectives arrested Eric Breeyear for charges that include false information to a Police Officer, False Pretenses, Possession of Heroin, and Identity Theft. Breeyear was lodged on these charges plus three outstanding arrest warrants. The warrants were for one count of Larceny from a Person and counts of Driving with a Suspended License Criminal.

During the encounter with Breeyear several items of stolen property were recovered from a Burlington residence. Police are seeking information as to the whereabouts of two other
